

Kia-ora from Room 3

This week Room 3 has been learning about the Anzacs and why we celebrate Anzac day. We were especially interested in a soldier who fought for the Maori Battalion. His name was Rikihanna Carkeek. The Maori battalion was initially sent to Egypt for garrison duty but were soon sent on to Gallipoli where the haka could be heard as the troops entered battle.

Room 3 has also completed some Anzac artwork.

Have a happy and safe holiday everyone
