Hello,

An early newsletter this week as I am away for a few days at the Te Tai Tokerau Principals Conference.

On Friday, we are hosting the Leader and Deputy Leader of the New Zealand Labour Party – Ms Jacinda Ardern and Mr Kelvin Davis as they continue their campaigning towards the General Election on the 23rd of September.

We expect Jacinda and Kelvin around 2.30 and we plan to hold a short assembly where some children, those who have displayed outstanding qualities so far this year, will be awarded special certificates presented by our visitors.

After this Jacinda and Kelvin will be available for a short time to meet with parents or interested folk in the school staff room before they head off to continue their visit to the Far North.

It isn't often that we see the 'decision makers' in Kaeo so please feel free to come along and meet them on Friday.

Kind regards,
Paul Barker.

Sunflower growing

A big thanks to John and Helen Owens from Kaeo Farm and Fuel who once again provided the seeds for the sunflower growing competition which works alongside our annual Pet Day. Your kindness is appreciated.

Pub Charities

Thank you to Pub Charities for their support of our school. We have received just over $2,400 to help us cover the cost of our next two 'Discover Northland' trips.

Market Day

Due to the visit of Jacinda Ardern and Kelvin Davis we have moved Market Day to Thursday. If you have any items you wish to donate please let the office or Debbie Hancock know. All funds made on Market Day are used to cover the cost of the Year 6 graduation evening. See you there.

Students of the Week.

Well done and congratulations to last weeks Students of the Week and top Kiwi Canners – Kahtanya, Matty, Kieran, Isaachar, Corvynn, Malika and Jorja – champions one and all.

A big thank you

Thanks to the awesome folk at the Kaeo Hunting and Fishing Club who kindly donated the proceeds of their annual auction to the school.

This pleasant surprise means that we can buy more sports gear for use at break times and this kindness is most appreciated.

The thorn between two roses - Mr Barker accepts the cheque from our own Ange Poutai and the lovely Deanna Herbert-Gaffer.
