

Room 4 Newsletter

Here in Room 4, we have been learning all about the routines and expectations in class and in the playground, and getting to know each other. We completed a piece of artwork last week called "Giraffes Can't Dance". We used the book by Charles Andreae, illustrated by Guy Parker-Reese as our motivation. The moral behind the story is that we all dance to a different tune, we are all individuals, and that's ok.
