Read the story 'The Tiger Who Came to Tea'.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=HG4f-Ggddvc> either by using this youtube link or reading it on the sheet at the bottom of this page. After you have read the story, complete the tasks below:

1. Draw a table and put all the food you would like to have if you were having a tea party with a tiger
2. Beside your drawing, make a list of all the food and drink you are going to be serving
3. Make a tiger mask to wear while you are having your tea party.

Investigate the maths problem below - explain what you are thinking and how you worked it out.

On the pirate ship there are 24 pirate swords. Each pirate has 2 swords.

If half the pirates lost a sword in battle and a quarter of the pirates each gained a new sword, how many swords would there now be on the pirate ship?

If a third of the swords were then lost how many would there be left?

- Practice skip counting in 10's up to 100. Use a hundreds board to help you spot the patterns you find. Draw your own hundreds board and colour in all numbers as you count in 5's.

Listening to Music

Listen to some music that you like, it could be on the radio, youtube, the TV, a CD or maybe even a record.

Explain why you have chosen this music and how it makes you feel. Try listening to the music again, but this time close your eyes, what pictures come into your head?

Once there was a little girl called Sophie, and she was having tea with her mummy in the kitchen.

Suddenly there was a ring at the door. Sophie's mummy said, "I wonder who that can be. It can't be the milkman because he came this morning. And it can't be the boy from the grocer because this isn't the day he comes. And it can't be Daddy because he's got his key. We'd better open the door and see."

Sophie opened the door, and there was a big, furry, stripy tiger. The tiger said, "Excuse me, but I'm very hungry. Do you think I could have tea with you?"

Sophie's mummy said, "Of course, come in." So, the tiger came into the kitchen and sat down at the table.

Sophie's mummy said, "Would you like a sandwich?" But the tiger didn't just take one sandwich. He took all the sandwiches on the plate and swallowed them in one big mouthful. Gulp!

And he still looked hungry, so Sophie passed him the buns. But again, the tiger didn't eat just one bun, he ate all the buns on the dish. And then he ate all the biscuits and all the cake, until there was nothing left on the table. So, Sophie's mummy said, "Would you like a drink?"

And the tiger drank all the milk in the milk jug and all the tea in the teapot. And then he looked around the kitchen to see what else he could find.

He ate all the supper that was cooking in the saucepans... and all the food in the fridge... and all the packets and tins in the cupboard... and he drank all the milk, and all the orange juice, and all Daddy's beer, and all the water in the tap.

Then he said, "Thank you for my nice tea. I think I'd better to now." And he went.

Sophie's mummy said, "I don't know what to do. I've got nothing for Daddy's supper, the tiger has eaten it all."

And Sophie found she couldn't have her bath because the tiger had drunk all the water in the tap.

Just then Sophie's Daddy came home.

So Sophie and her mummy told him what had happened, and how the tiger had eaten all the food and drunk all the drink.

And Sophie's daddy said, "I know what we'll do. I've got a very good idea. We'll put on our coats and go to a café."

They had a lovely supper with sausages and chips and ice-cream.

In the morning Sophie and her mummy went shopping and they bought lot of things to eat.

And they also bought a very big tin of Tiger Food, in case the tiger should come to tea again.

But he never did.
