

Kaeo School at Home

Kia ora from Miss Campbell

Here are your activities for today. You can email me, stephanie.campbell@kaeo.school.nz when you have finished an activity, or if you like, post pictures of your work on our Kaeo School @ Home Facebook Page. Try and find some time to get out side and get some fresh air if you can today. Stay Safe, Miss Campbell.

Continue to read to someone in your bubble, or perhaps read to a pet or a teddy bear. On the following page is a short text for you to read with a series of questions to answer when you have finished. Ask an adult in your bubble to check you answers and use the agree / disagree / justify discussion starter we use in class.

Calculate your next travel destination (As local as we can due to Covid 19)

- ① Choose a whole number between 1-9
- ② Multiply if by 3

What did you notice? Where is the most popular destination? 🗳️

Write a personal narrative about your own experience since New Zealand went to Level 4. Include feelings and thoughts, and make sure to include the characters that have been part of your lockdown experience (your bubble). You can use direct speech—remember to use speech marks, and powerful verbs.

Here is your spelling work for this week—how many different ways can you find that spell the long 'a' sound as you hear it in the word 'day'

Make a table with each new way to spell 'a' as the heading for each column and fill each column with as many words as you can using that spelling pattern.

Remember it is 'a' as in day not 'a' as in apple.

Gather up an assortment of leaves and twigs and create a piece of art. It doesn't need to be glued down, in fact if it is not glued down than you can use the collection of leaves you have gathered to make multiple art pieces. Post a picture of your favourite creation.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

SHOW WHAT YOU KNOW

"But mom, I don't want to spend my entire weekend cleaning up OTHER people's trash!" Lorna stomped her feet as mom slid the van door open.

Her parents had signed their entire family up for a weekend community service project at a local park. For years, the park was abandoned and nobody had taken care of it. All that Lorna could think about was how ridiculous it was that she had to be the one to clean it up when she wasn't the one who made the mess. Nevertheless, she couldn't convince her mom that she needed to stay home. Pulling up to the park, Lorna crossed her arms and groaned. She stashed her iPod under the seat and stepped into the sunshine. "Well, at least it's a nice day," she grumbled. They spent the entire day bagging trash—everything from old McDonald's wrappers to half empty bottles of soda.

When the sun began to set, the family headed back to the hotel to rest up. At dinner, mom asked what Lorna's favorite part of the day was. "Leaving that dump!" was her only response.

The next day, the group pulled weeds and began planting new trees and flowers. Lorna preferred this over picking up trash, but it still wasn't her favorite thing to do. By the next week, Lorna had forgotten all about her weekend, and she had moved on to playing with her new app.

Three months later, mom told Lorna she had a surprise for her. The family pulled up to the same park they had been at weeks before. This time, though, there were children playing in the grass, flowers blooming under leafy trees, and squirrels running around. "Wow!" thought Lorna. "Maybe it wasn't so bad after all." She turned to her mom and asked if there was another project they could help with.

1. Explain how Lorna changes throughout the story.

2. Use three adjectives to describe Lorna.

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

3. How does Lorna show how much she disliked their family plans?

4. Why does mom bring Lorna back to the park after a few months have passed?
