

Kaeo School at Home

Lights, camera action!!

This week you are no longer a student you are a ringleader in charge of your very own circus.

What kind of circus will you have? Will it be full of dragons, dinosaurs and acrobats? Maybe it's a teeny tiny flea circus!

I can't wait to find out!!

Time flies when your having fun

Your show runs for 1 hour (60 minutes).

Make a time table of all the acts in your show. Think carefully about how long each creature or act would need to preform?

Dancing flea	15 minutes
Singing snake	25 minutes
Snack buying break	10 minutes
Juggling mongoose	10 minutes

Opening night

Write a story about your circus's first show. Is it a success or do the fleas get fed up and start biting everyone? What amazing tricks do the creatures preform?

Your challenge is to use alliteration to make your story more descriptive. Alliteration is when you use the same sound repeatedly in a sentence.

Example: Six silent snakes slithered onto the stage.

Alliteration spelling chain

Choose one creature or performer from your circus and make an alliteration chain. You must have at least 10 words in your chain. Afterwards get someone in your bubble to check your spelling. Practice any words you have misspelled.

Example: Dragon, Dances, Dangerous, Dotty, Delicate, Delicious, Donuts, Dunked, Drip

Build your circus tent

Step right up and build your own splendid circus tent! It can be any style you like.

There are a few criteria that your circus tent must meet.

Your tent must....

- Be able to fit your fist inside
- Be strong enough to hold a pen on the roof
- Have a flag on the top
