

Kia ora from Room One

Last week Room One had a soft start back to school after our many weeks at home in lock down because of Covid 19. Part of easing back into things was having some time in class cuddling our temporary class member Winston. The class took great care of Winston for the week, and thoroughly enjoyed t

