Term 2

Week 12

Hello,

An early newsletter this week as we head towards the winter holiday after what has been an interesting and sometimes challenging term!

Sadly, the weather hasn't been kind and so our Matariki event has been postponed until next term. It is always tricky when deciding to push on or to postpone but the challenge when we plan a hangi is that the meat needs to be defrosted and the vegetables prepared in readiness for the hangi and if we cancel then there is a risk that the food is lost.

We will get there after the holidays when hopefully the weather will be kinder to us.

Enjoy the holidays, stay warm and safe – school resumes on Monday the 20th of July.

Kind regards,
Paul Barker.
