

Kia Ora Room 2! Here is Wednesday's mahi ☺

Some things are easy for you to do and some may be a little more challenging. It is ok to get someone to help you—they may enjoy it too! Remember, you can also email me; rona.lawson@kaeo.school.nz with any questions, photos, updates or even just to say hi. Alternatively, posting your photos or commenting on the Kaeo School At Home Facebook page is a great way to share your learning with me and others. So let's get started ☺

Riddle of the day I am always running, but never get tired or hot. What am I?

Pānui – Have a look around your house, searching high and low for a book that you have never read before. See if you can predict what the book will be about before you even read it. Use the title and the front cover as clues to help you figure this out. Share your prediction with someone else in your household. Now have a go at reading it on your own and check to see if your predications were right...

Tuhituhi – Father's day is this Sunday (5th September) so I thought we could make some awesome cards for our dads, grandads, or even for our mums so that they know how much we appreciate them and all that they do for us. Below are some Father's day card ideas, but you can make your card however you like. However, it must include the following words; Happy Father's/Grandad's/Mother's Day, Dear _____ Thank-you for... , I appreciate you because..., Love from...

Tip for extra brownie points from the person receiving your card, add a 'Free Ticket' section where you can offer to help them with something of their choice for the day. This could be a 'Free dishwashing ticket' or a 'Free hug ticket' etc. Get creative! Make sure you also include a picture on your card and some colour ☺ Don't forget to take a photo of your card or your loved one receiving your card and post them on the Facebook page or email them to me. I'd love to see your wonderful creations!

Pāngarau – Miss Lawson has 23 cupcakes that she wants to share with her three friends.

She deals the cupcakes out evenly to herself and to each of her friends, then she keeps the leftovers for herself (What a PIG Miss Lawson!) How many cupcakes does Miss Lawson end up with after sharing?

SpongeBob Spelling master!

Using the same list words, you chose on Monday, you should have practised them for a little while yesterday, today and should practise them tomorrow too. Don't forget to get someone to retest you on Friday to make sure you learnt them.

Challenging words from Book 4, List 10:

anyone, frog, porridge, bodies, himself, sang, cities, latest, slowly, digging, met, sudden, fed, oldest, turning

Even MORE challenging words from Book 6, List 20:

actually, garage, musical, strip, bent, governor, peak, tiger canary, government, proper, underneath, control, lightning, salmon

Explore and investigate:

Seeing as we have made dad, grandad or mum their card for our writing task, I thought we could explore a few of Miss Lawson's favourite baking recipes that dad, grandad or mum will LOVE...and of course the rest of the whanau! Make sure you get an older brother or sister to help you with these recipes ☺ Enjoy!
