

Kia Ora from Rooms

2 and 3

Room 2 and 3 joined forces this week to co-create fantastic problem and solution stories.

First, students wrote a detailed description about an imaginary monster.

Next, they created their monsters in the form of finger puppets.

After that, students wrote a story that contained their characters and had a problem and solution.

Finally, in pairs students performed their masterpieces.

