Term 4

Week 5

Hello everyone,

Amongst all the doom and gloom of Covid it is easy to miss or forget all of the good things that continue to happen around us. Worrying about masks and vaccines and the threat of Covid 19 to our family friends can be draining.

American poet Robert Frost (1874-1963) when asked what we knew of life had a simple but profound reply-

“In three words I can sum up everything I've learned about life: It goes on”.

And so, whilst we fret and worry about where the world is right now yes, life goes on. This is no better illustrated by Mrs Harris who leaves us tomorrow in preparation for the birth of her first child. At the end of a somewhat challenging and at times difficult year this a bright spark for her and her husband Callum, their family and friends, and for us too – her school whanau.

We wish her all the best and are sure that she will be a fabulous mum, that the experience that teaching brings of juggling a million things at once, having sleepless nights, and worrying incessantly about the children in your care, will hold her in good stead for motherhood and we look forward to becoming surrogate aunts and uncles in due course.

Student of the Week

No Students of the Week last week so instead here is a nice picture of Terrain, Olivia, Chloe and Che' Nicole with our welcoming Christmas Snowman!

School Photos

Covid 19 and especially the challenges that Auckland has had have meant that getting our school photos back has taken longer than we would normally expect but they are almost ready and we expect them in the next couple of weeks. When they are delivered to school we will post on our school Facebook page to let everyone know when they will be being sent home so that they don't stay at the bottom of school bags too long!

End of School Year

The school year is fast coming to a close and so we are beginning the tidy up jobs that occur at this time of the year. If you have any school library books at home please return them to school as soon as you can so that we can undertake our stock take. Similarly, if you have any school readers please send them back to school now.
