

DRAMA

In Room 5 we have been enjoying practicing our drama skills. We love acting out our shared big book every Friday thinking about the setting and character roles. Miss Stovell shared a poem with us called “Lucky Escape” which we had fun dancing and acting to.

Sun is blazing, lizard lazing,
 Cat comes slouching, crouching, pouncing,
 Sudden dash, silver flash
 Lizard skitters, cat misses,
 Lizard lurking in the grass, lucky for you that you're so fast!

Yesterday we did drama. I was a cat. We read the poem and did the actions to it. We laid down on the mat. We did the action to the sun.

Tobias

The cat is trying to catch the lizard but the lizard was too fast for the cat.

Luxton

Yesterday we did drama. I was a lazy lucky lizard because I didn't get caught from the cats. Then we swapped places.

Amber

Yesterday we did drama. I was a lizard. We were running from the cat. I was the cat and the lizard was too fast.

Ngapuhi

Yesterday we did drama. I was a lizard and a cat. We read a poem, and we acted like the sun.

Christine.

We read a poem. I liked being a lizard. I was running fast.
