We have been learning to ‘show don’t tell’. This means we show exactly what happened in our writing. Here are some of our improved sentences.

Tell sentence: We were going out on the yacht.

Show sentence: On Friday after school, my Dad’s friend Mack and his son Blue got the little dinghy so we could get to the big white yacht. The yacht had a tall blue sun deck.

We backed down the wet boat ramp and put all our stuff on the back of the yacht... then off we went!

Tell sentence: I went to Walmart.

Show sentence: On a lovely summer day, me and my family went to Walmart. First, we were getting ready. When everyone was ready, I gave the car keys to my dad. Dad started the engine of our very clean SUV, the loud engine powered the black car. My dad connected the music up and started driving. After about half an hour we arrived at Walmart, my eyes widened, forgetting how big the shop was.

Tell sentence: I fed the cats.

Show sentence: On one cold wet morning I could hear my cats, Billy and Bubbles meowing to be fed. So I got out of my cosy bed and opened my bedroom door. I walked into the laundry room and opened the drawer to grab a sachet. I ripped the top of the sachet, all the food poured out into the cat bowl! Ewww... Billy always gets in the way and ends up with food all over his face.
