PANGARAU

A tessellation is a translation of a shape. It does not leave any gaps making a perfect fit and a beautiful pattern. We see these in nature - like beehives.

CHARACTER DESCRIPTIONS

For writing we are using our favourite characters to help us describe their appearance and personality. We are focusing on using precise nouns and adjectives. - Eva and Alaya

NOVEL STUDY

Our group have started reading our first novel for the year. We are learning to summarise chapters and think about our characters personalities and appearance.

JUMPING JUNE

We are excited to help raise money for the Heart Foundation. Our class will be helping to run some fun skipping activities on the 21st of June. Don't forget to join online and find some sponsors for our tamariki.
